Who are these people? What are they doing? Where are they? These are participants in Bouncing Babies Story Time at the Roswell Library. A mini-grant awarded by the Atlanta-Fulton Public Library Foundation provided funding to purchase the age-appropriate educational materials used to spur development and enrich language skills.

Derek Wilson, Young Adult Librarian, welcomes visitors during the grand opening of the Teen Center. Created specifically to attract and serve the teen patrons of East Point Library, funding to enhance the space was provided by the Atlanta-Fulton Public Library Foundation.
