Beyond the Sunrise: Caribbean Culture and Heritage

In celebration of Caribbean Heritage and Culture month, this listing provides essential reference materials to recognize various islands, countries and communities that contribute to the Caribbean experience. Anthologies focused on Caribbean writers and histories, comparative literature selections examining major authors of Caribbean genres and some works of non-fiction and fiction are included.

Often considered “settler nations,” this collection of islands and communities is a mixture of African and American Indian/Native Americans, greatly influenced by Dutch, French and eastern European colonization. The preservation of Caribbean culture and heritage is seen in usage of distinctive languages, colorful cuisines, artistic expressions and cultural neighbors along the Greater and Lesser Antilles and Windward and Leeward Islands.

Resources include call numbers, for patrons to easily inquire and obtain resources. Auburn Avenue Research Library maintains non-circulating policies of its collection; however, patrons are able to utilize materials in-house. Suggested search terms and keywords are provided to further guide patron’s research amongst Auburn Avenue Research Library and the Atlanta-Fulton Public Library catalog and digital libraries. The below Boolean Operators (AND, OR, also NOT) are simple words used to maximize search results.
