Summerhill, Jewish & Black Race Relations and Leo Frank Bibliography

This listing provides essential reference and historical information and materials about Summerhill and surrounding area. Located in the downtown Atlanta area, its neighbors are the Atlanta zoo AND Grant park. Additional statistical information about the community’s Jewish demographic and population is included. The area’s first public school for blacks, E.P Johnson Elementary School, information and history is provided. A special highlight of the Leo Frank lynching is also included.

Resources include call numbers, for patrons to easily inquire and obtain resources. Auburn Avenue Research Library maintains non-circulating policies of its collection; however, patrons are able to utilize materials in-house. Suggested search terms and keywords are provided to further guide patron’s research amongst Auburn Avenue Research Library and the Atlanta-Fulton Public Library catalog and digital libraries. Electronic resources can be accessed with a library or student card. The below Boolean Operators (AND, OR, also NOT) are simple words used to maximize search results.
