East Atlanta History Book Signing

Atlanta – On Saturday, March 29 from 3:30-5:30 p.m., the Friends of East Atlanta Library will host an author talk and book signing with Henry Bryant and Katina VanCronkhite in the East Atlanta Library meeting room.

Their new book is Images of America: East Atlanta. During the talk, the authors will discuss some of the little-known history and share some of the digital images and stories that weren’t included in the book. This book features a timely chapter on The Battle of Atlanta which happened 150 years ago this summer.

Books will be available for purchase at the event. Several past and present residents who lived in East Atlanta from as early as the 1920s and who were resources for the book are planning to attend. Light refreshments will be served.

The program is sponsored by the Friends of East Atlanta Library and the Atlanta-Fulton Library System. The library is located at 400 Flat Shoals Avenue in the East Atlanta Village.

Atlanta-Fulton Public Library System is the largest in the state, with 33 libraries and a collection of more than 2.5 million items. It offers innovative programs, services and virtual resources tailored to meet the needs of each branch's community. Children, teens and adults may choose from a variety of classes, visit exhibitions, listen to authors discuss their work, check out videos, DVDs and CDs, attend book club discussions, get homework help, hear music and see live performances. Last year patrons borrowed more than 4.2 million items, made 4 million visits to the libraries and our website had over 4 million hits.
