Atlanta-Fulton Public Library System Breaks Ground on New Palmetto Library

Atlanta – The Atlanta-Fulton Public Library System will break ground on the new Palmetto Library Tuesday, February 25 at 11:00 a.m. (note: this is a new date; the original date Thursday, January 30 was cancelled due to snow).

The new 10,000-square-foot library for Palmetto is part of Phase I of the Library Building Program, currently underway. The library will be located at 9111 Cascade Palmetto Highway in Palmetto.

Houser Walker Architecture is contracted with Fulton County to provide design and engineering services for the new library. New South Construction is contracted to provide construction management services on this project, and Heery/Russell is the program management team.

The grand opening of the Palmetto Library is expected in the 4th quarter of 2014.

In November 2008, Fulton County voters overwhelmingly passed the Library Bond Referendum. The plan will greatly enhance all of the county’s libraries, and includes:

8 New Branch Libraries: Alpharetta, East Roswell, Milton, Northwest Atlanta, Palmetto, Southeast Atlanta, Stewart-Lakewood and Wolf Creek.

Two expansion projects: Auburn Avenue Research Library on African American Culture and History and the South Fulton Library.

Green building design and sustainability are priorities for these library building projects, and the Library System expects to achieve LEED Silver on all of the Phase I projects. Each library will reflect the culture and interests of its community.
